

Beardstown Man Survives Crash Hijack Cruise Ship In Caribbean

Parents Of Springfield Woman Aboard

By HAL COOPER
LONDON (AP)—The British frigate Rothesay reported today that the Portuguese cruise ship Santa Maria, hijacked in the Caribbean with more than 800 persons aboard, appeared to be headed for Brazil at a speed of about 20 knots.

The British Admiralty said the Rothesay, a 370-foot submarine hunter, was trailing the Santa Maria in West Indies waters about 150 miles east of Trinidad.

The admiralty said its frigate had been ordered to try to arrest the liner if she could do so outside territorial waters and by peaceful means—"without loss of life or the risk of scuttling."

SPRINGFIELD WOMAN'S PARENTS ABOARD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The parents of a Springfield woman are among passengers aboard the hijacked cruise ship Santa Maria.

Mrs. Barbara Evans said today her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. Miller, boarded the ship Jan. 9 at Lisbon following a European tour since April 1960. The Millers were planning to spend the winter in Miami Beach, Fla.

The leader of the hijackers reportedly had threatened to scuttle the ship if interfered with.

Two U. S. Navy destroyers and a flight of Navy planes also were ordered on the trail of the fugitive ship. The Navy ordered the (Continued On Page Seven)

Urges Two-Price Plan For Wheat To Cut Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Milton R. Young, R-N.D., today proposed a two-price plan for wheat to cut the growing surplus of that bread grain.

"It would give farmers a fair return for wheat, as good as now or a little better," Young said. "It would be far less costly than the present program and would do the most to reduce surplus."

Under the program now in effect the 1961 wheat crop will be supported at 75 per cent of parity for the wheat produced under acreage control. Unless Congress acts before early summer, the same program will be in effect for the 1962 crop.

The wheat surplus has been steadily increasing in recent years. There is now about 1½ billion bushels of the grain on hand. Under the Young bill, wheat farmers would receive 100 per cent of parity support prices for that portion of their production which is consumed domestically.

The balance would be sold at the world price or at a minimum support level which the secretary of agriculture deemed necessary for balance.

It would give permanent authority to the secretary to impose production controls on a bushel basis rather than by acreage as under the present program.

Cross To Quit Union If Charges Dropped

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP)—James G. Cross has quit as president of the Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union—provided a pending corruption case against him is dropped and he is given a reported $250,000.

The union's general executive board announced it had agreed to terms with Cross after sending a deputation to negotiate with him at his Palm Beach, Fla., home.

The board said "complete details of the settlement agreement must await court approval" but they include dismissal of pending litigation brought by some union ex-officials alleging that Cross had "systematically plundered" the union's treasury.

It was reliably reported the board had agreed to give Cross over $250,000 cash to liquidate his pension rights, and that there are other considerations.

Blame Saratoga Fire On Ruptured Oil Line

By DMITRI TRAYLOS
ATHENS, Greece (AP)—The Navy blames a ruptured oil line for the raging two-hour fire that struck the huge aircraft carrier Saratoga, the U.S. 6th Fleet's big punch, killing 7 crewmen and injuring 23.

There was no indication how long the 76,000-ton ship would be out of action or of what repairs would be necessary. Newsmen were barred from boarding the carrier or talking to her crewmen.

Flames broke out in a machinery compartment at 2 a.m. Monday as the Saratoga steamed across the Ionian Sea toward Athens after patrol in the eastern Mediterranean. Her skipper, Capt. R. W. Mehl of Cincinnati, put the ship into Phaleron Bay near Athens hours later without aid from other ships.

It was the second major disaster aboard a Forrestal class carrier in five weeks. The Saratoga's sister ship, the Constellation, was gutted by a $48-million fire that started from a fuel oil leak Dec. 19 while she was under construction in the Brooklyn Navy Yard. Fifty civilian workers lost their lives.

A court of inquiry headed by Rear Adm. Arthur R. Gralla, commander of Destroyer Flotilla 2, was named to investigate the fire aboard the Saratoga.

Fire control parties from the Saratoga's 3,800 officers and men fought the fire for two hours deep below decks and finally extinguished it without help from other 6th Fleet units. The dead, a chaplain, 3 other officers and 3 enlisted men, were asphyxiated by heavy smoke.

The Saratoga is the flagship of Rear Adm. David L. MacDonald, commander of the 6th Fleet's carrier Task Force 60.

SHIP AMONG THOSE FAVORING DISARMAMENT STUDY

WASHINGTON (AP)—A National Peace Agency which would conduct research in disarmament control and train enforcement teams was proposed today in a House bill.

Rep. Robert W. Kastenmeier, D-Wis., principal author of the bill, said it had been shown in advance to "high foreign policy officials of the Kennedy administration" who had promised to study it.

Others sponsoring the bill, all Democrats, include George Shipley, Ill.

Roosevelt Calls Firm's Finances 'Very, Very Poor'

SHELDON, Iowa (AP)—The financially-distressed Northern Biochemical Corp. tightened its fiscal procedures today after disclosures of apparent laxness.

Elliott Roosevelt, assuming the company's chief executive role, described Northern's financial condition as "very, very poor" following the closing of Sheldon National Bank a week ago today.

The bank's assistant cashier, Mrs. Burnice Geiger, and the company's deposed president, Harold Kistner Jr., have been charged in a $2 million embezzlement at the bank. They are in jail in Sioux City.

Addressing a meeting of stockholders and employees Monday, Roosevelt said "you have a company that in all probability has not made money in its period of operation."

Northern Biochemical, which markets a livestock feed additive, was started about 15 months ago and now employs 126 persons. Roosevelt said the company would complete a refinancing program as soon as possible.

Mercury Hits -33—

More Arctic Air Blustering In

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The eastern half of the nation bore the brunt of a bitter cold wave today as even colder Arctic air moved on the area whipped by icy northwesterly winds.

The Weather Bureau said the new cold wave would bluster its way from the Great Plains to the Atlantic during tonight. Part of new onslaught of the huge mound of cold Arctic air already was being felt from Minnesota to the Ohio Valley.

This morning dawned in 32-degree below zero weather at International Falls, Minn., and 32 degrees above zero at Anchorage, Alaska. It was 31 below at Devils Lake, N.D., about the same time it was 31 above at Juneau, Alaska.

Maine experienced its sixth consecutive day of biting cold with the thermometer dipping to 38 below at Old Town and no letup in sight. All New England shivered. Concord, N.H. recorded 27 below and Rumford, Maine, 26 below.

The mercury plunged well below the zero mark in the upper Plains and the Mississippi Valley. Below-zero readings also were recorded over the North Atlantic states while the teens were common from the central Plains eastward to the northern Ohio Valley and the central Appalachians. The freezing line extended southward to Kentucky and northern Tennessee.

Cold wave warnings were issued by the Weather Bureau for Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri as the key air swept into the upper Mississippi Valley. Colder weather was in prospect for the western and southern Plains, the central Mississippi Valley, the Ohio Valley, Tennessee and the Carolinas.

Light snow fell in some parts of the key belt from the Dakotas through the Great Lakes region and under Ohio Valley. Fresh snow fell Monday in Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, New York, and North Carolina as freezing weather was reported throughout wide areas of the South.

Temperatures increased fairly even southward to the 50s in central Texas and along the Gulf Coast and to the 60s in southern Texas and the western Gulf Coast.

Dirksen said the 45-mile project would "open up markets for the natural resources of Southern Illinois and be a great force in bringing new industry to that area."

But Rep. Kenneth J. Gray, a Democrat from West Frankfort, Ill., whose 25th District would be affected by the project, termed Dirksen's action Monday "phony as a three-dollar bill."

He said Dirksen "is exhibiting pure political opportunism in trying to claim credit for sponsoring a project which still must go through several Army Engineer and congressional processes."

Dirksen responded: "We know all about the project. We've been working on it for years."

The bill would authorize construction of a channel 9 feet deep and 200 feet wide.

Gray said Dirksen's bill was "a pure attempt to gain credit for a project which will be handled by the House and Senate Public Works Committee."

Gray said the Army Engineers Board of Rivers and Harbors and the chief of engineers must approve the project.

Bitter Cold In Illinois Due To Be Intensified

By The Associated Press
Skies were fair throughout most of Illinois today, but the weather was bitter cold.

Stinging northwesterly winds up to 30 miles an hour in northern Illinois caused near zero temperatures to feel much colder. The Weather Bureau said that before tonightfall Chicago might record its coldest Jan. 24 since 1897 when the mercury plummeted to 15 below zero.

Rockford and Moline residents arose this morning to see readings just below the zero mark, while Paducah, Ky., near the Ohio River started the day at 28 degrees. It was -4 at Rockford, -3 at Moline.

Wednesday's high in Illinois is expected to be around 10, but the cold wave is due to linger at least until Friday or Saturday. Northern Illinois temperatures tonight are likely to skid to the 7 to 18 below zero range, while Southern Illinois shivers in readings ranging from near 10 below to zero.

Monday's high temperatures and the overnight lows included: Belleville 29 and 10; Quincy 29 and 0; Vandalia 27 and 9; Springfield 26 and 5; Moline 26 and -3; Peoria 25 and 2; Chicago (Grant Park) 23 and 2; Rockford 21 and -4; Chicago (Midway Airport) 21 and 1; Rantoul 20 and 5, Duquaine, Iowa, 20 and -8.

Tells Illinoisans Nominated For Military Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., Monday announced these Illinois nominations for appointment to the military, Air Force and Merchant Marine academies:

Army—John B. Roseberg, Rockford, principal; alternates—Peter C. Stoecklin, Centralia; Robert J. Hill III, Park Ridge, Crossen, Anderson, La Grange.

Air Force—John H. Licht, Elmhurst, principal; alternates—Kenneth D. Anderson, Naperville; John Mann Gregg, Lawrenceville; Steven H. Comstock, Glen Ellyn; Robert F. Agrella, Homewood; Stephen J. Grollinger, Chicago; Ivan Zarembo Jr., Sterling; John Berglund, Maywood; James D. Bain, Benton; Robert G. Stewart, Villa Park; Gerald Maden, Chicago.

Merchant Marine (unranked)—Kenneth Flaks, Ingleside; Raymond J. Hong, Cicero; James M. Kelleher, Chicago; Paul E. Rasmussen, Chicago; Lawrence W. Strope, Rock Island; Brian R. Wendt, Park Ridge; Ralph T. Anderson, Franklin Park; Michael Bertolotto, Fox Lake; Thomas B. Davis, Chicago.

Dirksen said he made the nominations on the basis of civil service examinations administered to the applicants. The academies will make final selections after interviewing their own examinees.

Officially said the policy applied not only to dealings with the Soviets, whose Premier Khrushchev has repeatedly pushed for summit get-togethers, but also to the numerous other foreign statesmen who have become increasingly imbued with the idea of doing business on a personal basis. But high-

Trains Begin To Roll After Delay By Harbor Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Commuter and long-haul trains have begun rolling again on two railroads following settlement of a two-week-old New York harbor strike that had snarled rail traffic as far west as St. Louis.

The walkout of railroad tugboat and ferryboat crewmen also had stranded 100,000 metropolitan commuters, threatened New York City's food and fuel supplies and shut down freight movements.

The New York Central and the New Haven railroads, virtually closed by the spreading strike, began shaping up trains during the night.

Both roads promised normal commuter service today.

The walkout Jan. 10 of 664 members of three marine unions operating railroad tug and ferryboats in the harbor, was settled Monday with an assist from the new secretary of labor, Arthur J. Goldberg. He had been dispatched here by President Kennedy.

The main issue in the dispute was the size of tugboat crews. The operators and unions agreed to defer solution of the problem until next December, when a study commission appointed by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower completes a survey of railroad manning problems.

Castro Vows Vengeance For Rebel Killings

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro charged today that counterrevolutionaries had kidnapped and hanged two militiamen and a uniformed school teacher the insurgents accused of being a Communist.

Vowing vengeance, the prime minister declared the executions were carried out early this month in the hills of Las Villas Province by a group calling itself the "Army of National Liberation."

Speaking at graduation exercises for 1,200 young men and women of the militia who have qualified as fighters, Castro reported that 30 "counterrevolutionary criminals" had been captured in the area where the alleged hangings took place in south central Cuba.

As the new teachers shouted "Paradise!" (to the execution wall), the prime minister pledged: "Over all of them will befall a persecution such as they could never imagine. Nothing will save them—not even mercenaries who have qualified as traitors."

Castro blamed "henchmen in cassocks"—a reference to the Roman Catholic clergy—and "agents of imperialism" for giving "ideological arms" to the enemies of the revolution.

He attacked specifically the Spanish priests who make up a majority of the Roman Catholic clergy in Cuba.

About 100 women demonstrated in front of the presidential palace Monday night against the revival of Castro's firing squad justice and clashed with pro-Castro hecklers.

Residents of Hell, a southeastern community near Detroit, basked in a comparatively moderate 5 above zero.

President Meets Top Disarmament Advisers

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy meets with top disarmament advisers today in a first step toward drawing up "serious and precise proposals for the inspection and control of arms."

The White House gathering is the third master strategy session in as many days on foreign policy problems.

Called to the executive mansion were disarmament chief John J. McCloy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Assistant Secretary of Defense-designate Paul H. Nitze, presidential security adviser McGeorge Bundy and presidential science adviser Jerome Wiesner.

Kennedy said during his campaign that "the most gaping hole in American foreign policy today is our lack of a concrete plan for disarmament."

In his inaugural address Friday, he said both the Soviet Union and the United States should "for the first time formulate serious and precise proposals for the inspection and control of arms — and bring the absolute power to destroy other nations under the absolute control of all nations."

Rusk, McNamara and Bundy were among the foreign affairs and defense leaders who gathered at the White House Monday in an all-day review and planning meeting.

In the course of the day: 1. Rusk, with Kennedy's approval, issued a statement saying Kennedy and he plan to stress normal diplomatic means rather than summit parleys in dealing with major international problems.

Officials said the policy applied not only to dealings with the Soviets, whose Premier Khrushchev has repeatedly pushed for summit get-togethers, but also to the numerous other foreign statesmen who have become increasingly imbued with the idea of doing business on a personal basis. But high-

Asked by the court whether she had anything to say, Mrs. Frantantonio answered with a meek "no."

Mrs. Frantantonio was convicted Dec. 6 by a jury that deliberated slightly less than two hours after a two-week trial.

With that puzzling observation, the case was put in a file marked "unsolved." That was 19 months ago.

Monday the FBI disclosed the arrest of two men—and said the mystery at least was partially solved.

Here's what happened: At 9:30 a.m., June 4, 1959, truck No. 59 of Armored Transport Co. picked up currency and coin at the Bank of America's 11th and Figueroa branch.

In the next 64 hours, the truck made 17 routine stops, picking up money at banks and business firms. At the end of the run, a money bag containing the $113,200 was gone.

The guards told investigators they had left the truck unguarded but locked—not an unusual occurrence—at five brief stops. When they returned there was nothing to indicate anyone had broken into the truck, they said.

The guards were checked—and cleared. The route was re-traced inch by inch for clues—but nothing turned up.

Monday Eli Lubin, 40, a one-time cronie of ex-gambler Mickey Cohen, and Glenn M. Tharp Jr., 36, a salesman soliciting business for the armored truck firm until his arrest a last week, were arraigned. They pleaded innocent to charges of conspiracy and theft of federally insured money. Investigators said they refused to discuss the case.

The FBI, withholding details of what led to the arrests, said: "Investigation indicated Lubin was unlawfully furnished keys to Armored Transport Co. trucks by Tharp."

William G. Simon, FBI agent in charge here, said Lubin took money from the truck while it was left unguarded — possibly with the help of others. He indicated there may be additional arrests.

What happened to the money? That's still an unsolved question, the FBI said.

Bomber Carried Nuclear Weapons

By NOEL YANCEY
GOLDSBORO, N.C. (AP)—A multimillion-dollar jet bomber carrying two unarmed nuclear weapons crashed near here early today. Three men were killed and the other five crew members parachuted safely. Among the survivors is Capt. Paul E. Brown of Beardstown.

The Air Force said there was no danger of nuclear explosion or radiation.

One of the unidentified nuclear weapons was jettisoned before the crash and was parachuted safely. The second was found in the wreckage of the huge eight-jet B52G of the Strategic Air Command which crashed about 13 miles north of Goldsboro.

The plane, stationed at nearby Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, was returning for an emergency landing shortly after midnight after being airborne several hours.

The pilot had radioed he was having fuel problems.

Lt. Col. Thomas Coleman, a public information officer, said "it looks like it broke up in the air and fell." Parts of the plane were scattered over a 1½-mile area.

The pilot, Maj. Walter F. Tulloch, 45, of San Diego, Calif., made a dramatic appearance after the crash. He had been considered missing, but he walked from a swampy woodland area to a farmer's home to notify base authorities he had parachuted.

The bodies of two men were found in the wreckage of the nose section of the plane. The body of a third man was found later about two miles from the wreckage. The Air Force said the man was in a time and that his parachute was opened. Cause of death was not known immediately and the Air Force said he could have been blown from the plane and his parachute opened automatically.

Sets Monday To Deliver State Of Union Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will deliver his first State of the Union message to a joint session of Congress Monday, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., told newsmen the date was agreed on at a meeting of Democratic congressional leaders with the President this morning.

He said he assumed the hour for Kennedy's appearance before the joint session will be the usual one — 12:30 p.m. EST.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana told newsmen there was no discussion at today's meeting of the legislative recommendations that Kennedy will submit to Congress later.

He said that he expects separate messages embodying legislative proposals will be sent to Congress within a week or two after Kennedy delivers his State of the Union message.

Republicans applauded the President's decision to outline his program within a week after taking office.

With that puzzling observation, the case was put in a file marked "unsolved." That was 19 months ago.

Man To Watch

A while back Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York announced for reelection in 1962. Now new signs appear that he is following a quicker political pace than he did in 1960.

The governor is getting around the country some on speechmaking forays. Even Los Angeles has not been too far, though his state legislature is currently in session.

More than this, he has already offered his services as a 1962 campaigner to fellow Republicans everywhere, despite the fact that he will then be engaged in his own battle for another term.

This kind of activity, begun early and continued long, was just exactly what Rockefeller did not do in the 1960 presidential campaign.

It is interesting to note that a good many GOP professionals, including some top men in the Nixon camp, felt that Rockefeller gave up too easily last year. Many of these were happy that he did. But their expert judgment was that he could have made a good fight of it had he chosen.

They felt, among other things, that he was very badly advised politically. Many were thoroughly convinced that he did not have a single aide qualified to counsel him on the intricacies of national politics.

As one GOP veteran put it tersely if somewhat cryptically: "Rocky never knew where the bodies were buried."

Perhaps the sharpest signal on Rockefeller's 1964 intentions will come if and when he chooses a really well versed political assistant between now and 1962. It would be clear evidence that next time he will be prepared to master the political infighting he turned away from in 1960.

Plainly, no matter what he does, there will be plenty of Republican opposition to Rockefeller as a 1964 candidate, and possibly not the least of it from Richard M. Nixon himself.

Yet even Nixon's own advisers did not underestimate a green Rockefeller in 1960. Neither they nor any other party leaders worth their keep are likely to underrate a more seasoned Rockefeller playing the game hard for 1964.

A New Kind Of Recognition:

How About Lack Of Merit Awards To Tell What We're Really Like?

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Well, today we've come up with a really good idea to better the lot of mankind and make life more livable.
Why not give out lack of achievement awards—and make the people who earn them wear them while in public?
Merit is recognized in almost all forms of endeavor.
In college the outstanding student can win a scholarship, and, if he plays football well, perhaps also get a salary on the side and a free car.

The armed forces have all sorts of awards for valor or special skills, and the civilian hero is rewarded with a Carnegie medal.
There are Nobel and Pulitzer prizes for distinction in literature, science, journalism and the quest for peace.
In business the outstanding salesman gets bonuses, trips with their wives to the Bahamas, and other goodies. The enterprising executive is out in on special stock deals.

This is all very fine, but it covers only half the picture. If we recognize merit, why shouldn't lack of merit also be recognized in a signal and unmistakable manner?
Why shouldn't people who distinguish themselves by poor service, chronic bad manners, or acts dangerous to themselves and others be compelled to wear on their coat or dress fronts a badge of some kind that warns others of what they are?

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Obviously this is the Doris Day season. The signs are everywhere. She was chosen Hollywood's Woman of the Year by The Associated Press. She was named the No. 1 money-making star in the Motion Picture Herald's poll. The Los Angeles Times chose her Entertainment's Woman of the Year. She is being honored for an Oscar for "Midnight Lace."
The question arises: What is a Doris Day?
To research this matter, I called at Universal Studio, where she is making "Love, Come Back" with the No. 2 box office star, Rock Hudson. The handsome pair performed a scene in which they were testing a candy company's new product.
When she finished the sticky chore, Miss Day came out of the scene to assist in my research. Holding a tiny battery-operated fan to cool off, she commented on her rise to the top of the Hollywood heap.

"Somebody asked me how I explained the fact that I was the fourth actress to be No. 1, the others having been Shirley Temple, Marie Dressler and Betty Grable, Doris said, "I said it was simple: We're all the same type." Yes, but how does she manage to swim against the current trend, which is toward films of lust and lechery?

"I think my pictures are sexy," she commented. "Pillow Talk" was all about sex. But there's a difference between good, clean fun and dwelling on sordid things. I don't think a girl has to wear a low-cut dress or play a prostitute to be sexy on the screen.

"I wonder if there is such a trend. Do people really want to see such things, or do the producers just think they do? I know that I feel embarrassed when I see raw sex on the screen. I wonder if other people aren't, too."

Now we're getting a picture of the Day phenomenon. She is fresh, clean (watch the word wholesome; she cringes at it) and buoyant. She eschews the downbeat—"Producers just don't send me that kind of story." Closest she came to the low-down kind of story was as Ruth Elting in "Love Me or Leave Me."

"But she wasn't a bad girl," Miss Day added. "She was entirely honest."
That's Doris Day—honest. She doesn't smoke, she doesn't drink. Guests will find no booze at her house.

"Our friends understand it," she said. "And we've got the craziest soda fountain you've ever seen. I can whip up some fantastic sodas and sundaes. I always keep a big bowl of whipped cream handy."

There Could Be Static on the 'Live' Kennedy News Fests

By PETER EDSON
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The first live, nighttime telecast of a President Kennedy news conference, scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 25, is hailed by the radio and TV industry as the next logical step in electronic reporting.
The rules haven't all been set. And such conditions as have been agreed on will be subject to change for later shows.

There has been no decision whether correspondents asking the questions will have to identify themselves. It's an advantage to the President to know who's asking the question. But that encourages the show-offs and loads the pest to pose smart-alecky or loaded queries. Nothing will kill this conference faster than a lot of hams.

There Will Be No Limitation as to subject matter. The President may or may not make some opening statement on a new development or an idea he wants to put across.

First questions would presumably be on this topic to amplify or clarify it. Questions could then turn to any subject on a catch-as-catch-can basis, no holds barred.

For subsequent night conferences, the networks can file requests or the President can say when he would like to go on the air. Networks will be free to take it or leave it. But a presidential request will be hard to turn down at first.

Scheduling will be up to the networks and the time that can be made available before the real night entertainment programs and the movie reruns begin. The three networks will handle the show on a pool basis, in rotation. If the conferences are held between 6 and 8 p.m., E.S.T., that will be 3 to 5 p.m. Pacific time. Video tapes will be cut for western stations to play back later as their schedules permit. The advantage is that stations can use as much or as little of the tape as they please.

One Of The Significant Facts about the Eisenhower news conference recordings is that very little of them ever got on the air. One or two questions and answers were usually picked up for the news bulletins.

The supertime pundits with 15 minutes to fill have used a few more. But the full half-hour conferences rarely got heard except by the technicians.

That may be the way the Kennedy night conferences will work out. If he has something to say and if the questions are good, the sets will stay turned on.

But if the President runs out of stuff or if the questions are as bad as they were in the Kennedy-Nixon great debates—the last previous great development in electronic reporting—these live news conferences may turn out to be the worst and the dearest turkeys ever produced by anyone.

They will have to be tried out to see if they work.

The New Idea, which originated in the Kennedy camp, is already being viewed with considerable skepticism by other news media. Comments are varied.

A few press correspondents have talked facetiously about boycotting. "Why should we become unpaid extras for nighttime TV shows?" they ask.

A reporter won't have to attend personally. He can sit in his office or at home, watch the show, make his notes and write his story from what he sees or hears. On these bases, only radio and TV correspondents would attend and it would be their exclusive beat.

Morning newspapers will probably report the conferences fully as part of their business in covering the night's news. But for afternoon papers next day they will be stale news. They will, however, still have the advantage of giving first printed coverage of the President's morning news conferences.

Perhaps The Surest Comment is that introduction of live telecasts marks the beginning of the end of White House news conferences controlled by the reporters. From here on they will be nothing but propaganda for presidential program, is one view.

If that develops, the Republicans can ask for equal time.

Photos Now 'Permitted' In Homey Family Room

Read a piece the other day advising women to drag their family photographs out of storage and hang them on a wall of the family room. It seems it is once again all right with the decorators for us to have pictures of our loved ones where we can look at them—instead of hidden away in boxes and drawers.

That's a real understanding of the decorators who have the final word on what's in good taste and what is definitely out.

If they'll let us put family pictures in the playroom they may even in time relent and let us move them back into the living room, from which they have been banned since parlors went out of fashion.

But then again maybe they won't ever get any farther than the family room. That seems to be where everything a family needs for coziness and relaxation seems to wind up, anyhow.

That's where the TV set is, and the record player, and the card table, the fireplace, the bookshelves and Papa's easy chair that got shoved out of the living room because it didn't have a mate (everything in living rooms seems to have to go in pairs, like the animals on Noah's ark).

So the living room ends up by looking like a picture out of House Gorgeous and the family room ends up looking like a home.

And where does the family do its living? Not in the living room, of course, but in the room where anything is allowed—even a comfortable chair for Dad.

The World

Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy, a student of both history and the presidency, is credited with having written a classic in his inaugural address.
But his real achievement perhaps was that while he managed to convey a feeling of newness—and a new approach to peace—his words demonstrated his own sense of continuity with men who preceded him.

Lest the rest of the world get the notion America is fat and tired, he said, "The torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans."

And indeed it has, to such a degree that American leadership now is the youngest of any major power. The leaders of Russia, Red China, Britain, France and West Germany are old or aging.

But his use of the word "generation" has a special meaning for those Americans who were alive and listening when President Franklin D. Roosevelt in the crisis of the depression said his generation had a "rendezvous with destiny."

Kennedy made no such hopeful promise for his generation. He said in the presidential campaign he did not know what the 1960s would bring "except hard times in the international sphere."

Because this is probably a conviction with him, it explains why he said in his inaugural that the work ahead will not be finished "in the life of this administration, nor even perhaps in our lifetime on this planet."

His words were almost identical with a man of a generation between him and Roosevelt: Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal—who, looking ahead in 1948, said: "Not in our lifetime, or in that of the next generation do I foresee the time when a strong military potential will not be needed to back up our diplomacy."

Kennedy did not get that blunt in the inaugural speech.

But his views—like those of Presidents Truman and Eisenhower before him—are the same as Forrestal's as he showed during the presidential campaign when he said: "Peace requires an American defense posture strong enough to convince any potential aggressor that war would be a mistake. This means we must have a military force second to none."

Perhaps the most memorable phrase Kennedy has uttered since accepting the Democratic presidential nomination last summer was his vision of the "New Frontiers" facing America.
Here again he had a direct link with the past. He was not the first president to dwell in terms of American frontiers.

Just as Kennedy dwelt on the need for peace, so did Eisenhower in his second inaugural address in 1957 when he talked of building a "peace with justice in a world where moral law prevails."
Kennedy last Friday, calling on the Communist world to cooperate in the search for peace, suggested creating "not a new balance of power but a new world of law."

We do not prove our Canadianism, but only our immaturity... I don't want to be tied to an American dollar, to an American Bomarc (missile), to Jimmy Hoffa, or even to "adult Westerns." I've met them all and I'd rather stay home with a good book.

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★

Prevent Later Foot, Back Woes in Child Care Now

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Few of us reach years of discretion without suffering the aches and pains of foot and back troubles caused by faulty body mechanics and even faulty shoeing. Since our difficulties are due, for the most part, to errors that date back to infancy and childhood, we are obligated to protect the rising generation from repeating our mistakes.

Here are some suggestions that may prevent your youngsters from later developing foot miseries and back strains:

Don't urge the infant to stand or walk until he indicates preparedness for weight bearing. Never mind what the book says about when he ought to make the effort. His instincts are better guides.

Don't start him in on a mechanical walker. The straddling position forces him to walk incorrectly on the inner part of the foot.

Despite the ideas of faddists, it is not a good idea to encourage barefoot walking, especially if you have a house pet. Your floors and floor coverings are bound to be contaminated.

When you shop for stockings, buy them 1/4-inch longer than the longest toe, in the standing position. Use frames to be sure that the stockings don't shrink after washing.

Observe these specifications for shoes: 1/4-inch wider and 1/4 to 1/2-inch longer than foot in standing position, broad toe, straight inner margin, adjustable laces, broadest at level of ball of foot, flat, firm, flexible sole that is not slippery.

Examine shoes frequently. If worn unevenly, especially along outer heels, have lift added and correct walking stance, as described below.

Teach youngster to walk with feet parallel, toes pointed straight forward and weight shifted along outer border.

Bathe feet morning and night with soap and water. Dry carefully, particularly between toes. Anoint with albolene or lanolin, especially if prone to sweat.

Cut toenails straight across when they extend beyond fleshy portion of toe. Do not round corners. Do not trim too severely.

And be sure to provide new shoes as soon as the growing foot begins to be crowded by the old pair.

FOOD FOR AMERICANS

Steak Bundles Are Bean Packed

SUCCULENT cube steaks, wrapped in "jelly-roll" style around green beans and crumb mix, are a new eating treat.

GAYNOR MADDOX

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
We tried this recipe for cube steak "jelly roll" style with Blue Lake green beans last night. A success! We selected the Blue Lake beans, grown in the Pacific Northwest, because we think they are an outstanding type of bean for canning, both in tenderness and shape.

CUBE STEAK BUNDLES

(Makes 4 servings)

- 4 cube steaks
- 1 (1 pound, 1 ounce) can whole Blue Lake green beans
- 1 cup dry bread crumbs
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup bean liquor
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon pepper
- 1 teaspoon savory
- 2 tablespoons oil
- 1 pint commercial sour cream
- 1/3 cup catsup
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Purchase steaks about 4 by 6 inches (approximately 6 ounces each). Drain beans reserving 1 cup liquor. Combine bread crumbs, egg, bean liquor, salt, pepper, savory. Spread crumb mixture on steaks. Arrange beans over crumbs. Roll steaks like jelly roll; secure with a skewer or long toothpick. Heat oil in a large ovenproof skillet. Brown steaks in hot oil. Combine sour cream, catsup and salt; pour over steaks. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 20 minutes.

MUSTARD SAUCE BEANS

(Makes 4 to 5 servings)

- 1 (1 pound) can Blue Lake green beans
- 2 teaspoons cornstarch
- 1 teaspoon instant minced onion
- 1 cup undiluted canned consommé
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- Dash dill weed
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Drain beans. Combine cornstarch, onion, consommé, mustard and dill weed and stir until smooth. Cook, stirring, until mixture boils and is clear and thickened. Add butter and drained beans. Heat thoroughly.

To Show Slides Of England At Scott P T A Meeting

By Dorothy Sauer
(Winchester Correspondent)
Telephone Pioneer 2-3439

WINCHESTER — The January meeting for the members of the Winchester Grade School Parent-Teacher Organization will be held Thursday, Jan. 26, in the gymnasium at the grade school commencing at 7:30 p.m. Parents of the organization are urged to attend these meetings.

Following the business session, Mrs. Sylvia Vasey, the guest speaker for the evening, will talk to the group and show slides on "Time to See and Hear" concerning a trip to her native country, England.

The children who are brought to the meeting will be supervised during the meeting by a committee of parents including Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thady, Mr. and Mrs. Al Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dawdy and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gregory.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening by the committee in charge.

A meeting of the officers and directors of the Winchester Community Swimming Pool Corporation was held Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Funk for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and to further plans for a county-wide drive for funds for the swimming pool project.

Officers and board members elected included president, Mrs. R. R. Funk; secretary, Mrs. J. Ralph Peak; treasurer, Russell Forshey; directors, S. R. Paris, Edwin Evans, R. R. Funk, L. Allan Watt, Mrs. Janea Robertson, and Dr. Paul P. Garrison.

Scott Square TV Aders
About 65 persons were in attendance Sunday evening at the Legion Hall in Winchester for square dancing to the calling of Max Roberts of Griggsville. Guests were present from Pittsfield, Griggsville, Jacksonville and Mt. Pulaski, Ill.

A report of the nominating committee was heard and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: president, Richard E. Mann; vice president, Charles Urbhig; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Urban Sauer.

Dues for the next six months were collected from members of the host club, the "Scott Square TV Aders," and from those of the last beginner's class who wished to join the local club. New members whose names have been added to the roster are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ash, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rahman, Mr. and Mrs. William Watt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregory, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Funk.

Badges for new members, at 70 cents each, were ordered and if anyone desiring a badge has not ordered one they are to do so as early as possible this week so that the order may be sent in.

Feted On Birthday
Elsie Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Howell of this city, was the guest of honor at a party at her home last Saturday afternoon on the occasion of her tenth birthday. The young ladies played Bunco during the afternoon and prizes were awarded the winners.

Following the opening of the many gifts, refreshments were served.

Those present included Patty Watt, Kathy Lashmet, Winnie Little, Patty Jouett, Becky White, Myra Lashmet, Karen Rutherford, Debbie Stice, Janet Thomas, Marsha Cloninger, Donna Moore, Sharon Howell and the guest of honor, Elsie.

Personals
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herman and family of Peoria including their son, Tommy, a member of the USAF stationed in Washington and at present home on leave; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crabtree and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Moore and family all of Winchester were Saturday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crabtree of this city.

Mrs. Jack Rueter is a patient at Our Saviour's Hospital in Jacksonville being taken there on Sunday evening by the Woodcock ambulance.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Welsh of Dumas, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Welsh and family of East St. Louis, Ill. and Father James O'Hara were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Pranger in Winchester. The Gerald Welsh family have been visiting with relatives here for the past several days.

Roy Crabtree returned to his home in Winchester on Thursday of this past week after being a patient at Passavant Hospital in Jacksonville. Mr. Crabtree suffered a fractured leg two weeks ago and had been hospitalized since.

Eddie Graham returned to his home in this city yesterday after being a patient at the Passavant Hospital for some time.

Mrs. Paul Lehman returned to her home in Winchester on Sunday after being a patient at Our Saviour's Hospital in Jacksonville the past week.

Mrs. Don Lashmet and daughter of Springfield were Winchester visitors on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Lashmet and other relatives in the area.

Mrs. Herman Flynn is entertaining the members of her bridge club this afternoon at her home near here.

Last Rites For Mrs. C. A. Taylor

Funeral services for Mrs. C. A. Taylor were held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at Reynolds' Mortuary, Rev. Arle Vanderhorst of Woodson officiating. Mrs. Miriam Ray presided at the organ.

Floral tributes were arranged by Mrs. Frances Craig, Mrs. Arvil Becker and Mrs. Mary Frances Alkire.

Palbearers were Oliver Taylor, Marvin Kinnett, John Irlam, Maurice Walsh, Paul Sheehan and Frank Loneragan. Interment was made in Asbury cemetery.

FIRE ALARM

Firemen went to Ballard's Phillips 66 service station at the corner of Lincoln avenue and West Morton at 6:03 p.m. Monday in response to an alarm of a car burning.

The alcohol in the radiator of a 1960 Chevrolet had ignited, but had been extinguished before the arrival of the firemen.

Mrs. Sweeting Of Perry Dies; Rites Tuesday

PERRY — Mrs. Margaret Van-Zandt Sweeting, 91, died at the Massey Nursing Home in Virginia Sunday morning. She was born Jan. 1, 1870.

She was married to Harvey Sweeting in 1895. He preceded Mrs. Sweeting in death.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Meservey, Alameda, Calif., and one son, William of Perry.

The remains are at the Bradbury Funeral Home where funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, Rev. R. V. Henry officiating.

Burial will be made in McCord Cemetery.

To Carry Crusade On Delinquency To Illinois Cities

ST. LOUIS (P) — The Rev. Dr. Bill Beeny, founder and director of the Missouri Youth Ranch for underprivileged children at Wright City, will carry his campaign against juvenile delinquency into Southern Illinois on horseback. He will leave St. Louis Jan. 30 on a 14-city tour similar to the trips of the circuit-riding preachers of bygone days.

His first stop will be at the East Junior High School in Alton on Jan. 30. Other stops on his 450-mile ride include:

Jan. 31, Hardin High School; Feb. 1, Greenfield High School; 2, Virden High School; 3, Leland Hotel in Springfield; 4, Taylorville High School; 5, Price Sales Pavilion in Shelbyville; 6, Ramsey High School; 7, Vandalia High School; 8, community center in Centralia; 9, Mount Vernon High School; 10, county court house in Nashville; and 11, Belleville Junior High School.

He is due back in St. Louis Feb. 12.

Markham Rites Held Monday

Funeral services for Miss Effie Markham were held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Williamson Funeral Home, Rev. Mrs. Neva Morris officiating. Mrs. Francis Angel played several selections at the organ.

Flower ladies were Mrs. Verne Anderson and Mrs. Lloyd Anderson. Palbearers were Walter Williams, Wilbur Williams, Charles Williams, Lloyd Anderson, Verne Anderson and Clyde Fitch.

Burial was made in the family lot in the Chapin cemetery. The name of a nephew of the deceased, Richard Schultis of Omaha, Neb., was unintentionally omitted from the previously published obituary notice.

JOSEPH HOGAN, FORMER CHAPIN RESIDENT, DIES

Funeral services for Joseph Hogan, former Chapin resident, will be held at 9 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's church in Alton. Burial will be in Murraysville cemetery. The body is at the Smith Funeral Home in Alton.

Mr. Hogan passed away in Alton Sunday evening.

Time Clocks For City Workers Draws Split Vote-To Be Studied

Time clocks for city employees met with both favor and disfavor from the city council last night, when a majority of the aldermen joined in a motion to investigate the possibilities of that system.

Alderman Joe Grojean, chairman of the highway department, advocated a time clock system, stating that it would simplify records and put operation of the highways department on a better business basis.

Councilmen viewed briefly the possibilities of putting all 80 employees under the general fund on a time clock to the police and fire departments.

Mayor DuBois joined with the majority of aldermen in authorizing committee chairmen to look into the time clock system. Vote was taken after Alderman Kane moved, seconded by Alderman Souza, that such a plan be considered for all departments under the general fund.

"No" votes were cast by Aldermen Belzer, Scott, and Tribble.

The invocation at the regular weekly session was offered by Rev. Lando Eltzen, pastor of Congregational church.

Report Morale "Excellent"
A report of the Fire and Police Commission for 1960 was read by City Clerk Phillips, reviewing activities which included nine official meetings, two examinations and several promotions in both departments.

The report, signed by Carl C. Ore, chairman; Leonard J. Gray, vice president, and Ray Shanley, secretary, stated that "the morale of both departments seems to be excellent." The report included complimentary remarks for chiefs of both departments.

Alderman Souza, perusing his copy of the annual report of the fire department, said he wasn't offering the thought in way of criticism, but that he doesn't believe valuable fire equipment should be taken out when the alarm is "only a cat in a tree."

"If the cats can get up, they can get down," was the way the alderman put it. Chief Holkenbrink said it has been the custom for the department to remove cats from trees when they are causing disturbance or anxiety in neighborhoods. Use of a line of water from a booster tank has been found to be very effective, he said.

Alderman Mathews, chairman of the financial committee, reported that the city treasurer's office is now engaged in making a check of automobile records at the court house, compiling a list of all persons to whom state licenses were issued in 1960. Those who are delinquent in wheel tax payments will then be subject to arrest.

The request of the Laborers Union, whose membership includes highway and sewer department employees, for a meeting with the committee and mayor at which wages will be discussed, was reported by Alderman Grojean. He said the session would be arranged within a short time.

Vote Equipment Purchases
The council "went shopping" for the water department after a report by Alderman Hocking on evaluation of bids on several items. Hocking recommended that the bid of McCurdy Ford for a three-quarter ton truck be accepted, which was $1,180 and an old truck. The purchase was approved on motions by Alderman Hocking and Tribble.

A body for the service truck will be bought from Drake and Scruggs for $523, on motions by Aldermen Schulz and Lemon.

A 30 foot manually operated ladder will be supplied by the same

R. C. Davenport Past Masonic Master, Dies

Richard C. Davenport of Harrisburg, Ill., Grand Secretary of the Masonic Lodge in Illinois since 1928, died Monday morning in a hospital at Knoxville, Tenn., where he had been under treatment since October.

Mr. Davenport, who served as Grand Master of the Illinois Masons in 1924 and 1925, was dean of Grand Secretaries in the U.S. and Canada.

Word of his death was received in this city by Carroll T. Hughes, a Past Grand Master of the Illinois Grand Lodge.

★ GRAYSON'S SCOREBOARD ★

By HARRY GRAYSON

Sports Editor

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

By GABE KAIMOWITZ

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — (NEA) — Against those who argue that Ohio State's Jerry Lucas is the greatest college basketball player today, the only answer seems to be Purdue's Terry Dischinger.

But Terry apparently was born at the wrong time (about the same time as Lucas) and went to college in the wrong place (Purdue) to gain recognition as the nation's No. 1 college hoopster. Lucas came into his own this year after Cincinnati's "Big O" Robertson was graduated. Robertson, in turn, had to wait for Wilt Chamberlain to exit from the scholastic ranks before he was truly appreciated.

But Terry, like Lucas, is 21 this season and a junior. So he seems destined to remain under the shadow of Lucas' six-eight, 220-pound frame, which barely covers his own six-seven, 192-pound build.

As for being from the wrong school basketball-wise, Terry, a better-than-average student playing in his home state, probably has no regrets. But it is true nonetheless.

LUCAS IS a great player with a great team. Lucas, John Havlicek, Mel Nowell, Larry Siegfried and any fifth Buckeye you could name, form the greatest college team ever seen by Joe Lapchick, St. John's (Brooklyn, N.Y.), coach, who has watched them all.

Without Lucas, CSU probably would be ranked only second or third in the country instead of first. The Buckeyes, 1959-60 Big Ten NCAA champions, are undefeated this season and appear among the top six teams in every offensive department including rebounding.

Purdue is nowhere in sight statistically or otherwise although it has a respectable (7-3) record to date. The Boilermakers "probably will finish in the first division in the Big Ten" but without Terry, "you probably would have trouble finding them in the standings," a Purdue sympathizer says.

Last year, Terry, the Big Ten's top scorer with a 26.3 point per game average (that's right — ahead of Lucas), broke every conceivable Boilermaker season and game record. He hauled in almost three times as many rebounds as any of his mates.

And that Purdue official says: "Terry is a better all-around player than Lucas, too" and that means as a defensive and playmaking threat as well as an offensive one, which sounds like idle boasting if you've ever seen Lucas play.

BUT THIS YEAR, in the statistical columns before the Big Ten bell officially sounded for league play, Terry was 5th in the nation in scoring (Lucas, 7th); 6th in field goal percentage (Lucas, 3rd) and 19th in rebounding (Lucas, 1st).

Terry opened the Big Ten season against Northwestern with 41 of the 79 points scored by Purdue in its victory.

Last year, Terry faced Lucas once; they proved nothing, each performing well as Ohio State expectedly won, 85-71. This year, they again met once, at Columbus on Jan. 28.

The only threat to the individual prestige of either probably will come when they separately face Indiana's six-eleven Walt Bellamy who played with them on the U.S. team in the Olympics.

If you're now wondering if Terry might come out from that shadow to shine in pro ball while Lucas goes on to attend to business, the Purdue official has this to say:

"Terry's not the type of boy to go professional. He's more interested in chemical engineering."

(While Harry Grayson is on special assignment in Israel, the Scoreboard is being written by members of the staff.)

Eagles Tap Skorich For Top Coaching Job

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles, champions of the National Football League, didn't go far Monday to pick a new head football coach—tapping assistant Nick Skorich for the job vacated by the veteran Buck Shaw.

Skorich, who is 39, was line coach under Shaw for the past two seasons. Before that he helped coach the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, from 1954-57, and in 1958 was with the Green Bay Packers.

Skorich, as long predicted, got the post the Eagles refused to give to Norm Van Brocklin, the star quarterback who almost single-handedly passed Philadelphia to its NFL title. The Eagles bosses apparently felt Van Brocklin lacked the coaching experience, a commodity Skorich has plenty of.

Van Brocklin angrily accused Philadelphia management of renegeing on a promise that he'd succeed Shaw when the Californian decided to quit.

Last week Van Brocklin was named head coach of the new Minnesota Vikings in the NFL. Skorich supposedly was sought for that job and turned it down. The Eagles gave Skorich a three-year contract, reportedly worth about $25,000 annually. He's the 11th Philadelphia coach since the club was founded in 1933 by the late Bert Bell, first NFL commissioner.

Skorich, even before his appointment was announced, admitted the Eagles would have no easy task retaining the championship this year. Van Brocklin's loss will be deeply felt.

"Naturally, you have to miss a great quarterback like Van Brocklin," Skorich philosophized. "Realizing this, I know we're going to have to make up for the loss of his great ability. We fortunately have Sonny Jurgensen (ex-Philadelphia star), who I feel will make a fine quarterback. He'll need experience, a commodity Skorich has plenty of."

Longest pass interception play in the Big Ten last season was turned in by Iowa's Larry Ferguson against Northwestern. He went 70 yards.

St. Louis Writers Fete 15 Players, Two Teams

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis baseball writers feted 15 individuals and two teams at their fourth annual banquet Monday night before a crowd of about 1,000 persons.

Skits lampooning local sports figures, including some of those tapped for honors by the writers, were sprinkled through the program.

The annual meritorious service award went to Ben Kerner, owner of the National Basketball Association Hawks.

Redbird pitchers Ernie Broglio and Lindy McDaniel were co-winners of the St. Louis Baseball Man-of-the-Year award. Two other Cardinals pitchers were singled out for honors: Ray Sadecki for the Rookie award, and Curt Simmons for the Comeback-of-the-Year award.

All-Sports awards went to bowlers Harry Smith, Ray Bluth, Dick Weber and Don Carter; John David Crow, Sonny Randle and Jerry Norton of the football Cardinals; golfer Bob Cochran; All-America end Danny La Rose and Coach Dan Devine of the University of Missouri; plus the Falstaff bowling team and the St. Louis University soccer team.

Sports editors Robert L. Burnes of the Globe-Democrat and Bob Broeg of the Post-Dispatch shared toastmaster duties.

FRANKLIN — In the Morgan County Grade School tournament, Murrayville and Alexander each picked up a victory in the first round action. Murrayville garnered their victory in the lightweight division, topping Alexander, 27-13, and Murrayville reversed the decision in the heavyweight game by a 35-31 score.

Arnold Palmer Named 'Pro Athlete Of Year'

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, 31-year-old 1959-60 PGA champion, Monday was named winner of the 11th annual R. H. Hickok "Professional Athlete of the Year" poll.

Palmer, all-time money winning champion whose 1960 triumph included the Masters and National Open among eight victories, was the second golfer to win the $10,000 diamond-studded, gold-buckled belt. He won by a margin of more than 100 points in the voting of sports writers and sportsasters.

Floyd Patterson, first-man to win back the heavyweight boxing title, was second, followed closely by Norm Van Brocklin, who led the Philadelphia Eagles to the National Football League championship. Palmer received 73 first place votes of the 143 cast and a total of 302 points on a 3-2-1 basis.

Patterson polled 35 firsts and 196 points and Van Brocklin drew 19 firsts and 176 points.

Bill Mazeroski, whose home run won the World Series for the Pittsburgh Pirates, was fourth with 53 points. Then came two pitchers, Vern Law of Pittsburgh and Warren Spahn of Milwaukee, tied for fifth place, each had 35 points.

Palmer was proclaimed the winner at the annual dinner of the Rochester Press and Radio Club. The entire proceeds of the dinner went to charity.

Previous winners included: Phil Rizzuto, baseball, 1950; Alie Reynolds, baseball, 1951; Rocky Marciano, boxing, 1952; Ben Hogan, golf, 1953; Willie Mays, baseball, 1954; Otto Graham, football, 1955; Mickey Mantle, baseball, 1956; Carmen Bastilo, boxing, 1957; Bob Turley, baseball, 1958; Ingemar Johansson, boxing, 1959.

Elmo Plaskett, a 22-year-old catcher, bears watching as a future big league prospect. A Virgin Islands product, the strapping youngster batted 295 at Grand Forks, N. D., drove in 78 runs in only 93 games and was named to the Northern League's all-star team. Presently, he is one of the leading hitters in the Puerto Rican winter league with a .319 mark, 10 homers and 31 runs at Ponce. His homers and RBI lead the league.

Pittsburgh Pirates Rookie Prospects

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — There's little room for newcomers on the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates but at least two pitchers—Jim Umbricht and Earl Francis—two outfielders—Donn Clendenon and Henry Mitchell—are going to get more than the usual attention given to rookies in spring training.

Umbricht is a 30-year-old right-hander who had a brief trial last year. Optioned to Columbus, Ohio, he returned with an 8-5 record, a 2.50 earned run percentage and a sinker pitch which he is supposed to have perfected in his minor league hitch.

Francis, 24, had a mediocre 5-4 mark at Columbus but he made a deep impression on Danny Murtaugh in spring training last year and the Pirate manager is anxious for another look at this 6-foot-2, 208 pound right-hander.

Clendenon played at Savannah last year. He led the Southern Association in home runs with 28 and was the second highest batter at .335. He also hit 15 triples and drove in 106 runs. Mitchell, at Salt Lake City, batted an even 300 with 19 homers and 64 RBI.

There are only 11 freshmen on the Pirate roster, more than half of them pitchers. Al Jackson, a southpaw, had a 10-4 record at Columbus; Larry Posa, a right-hander, was 9-5 at Savannah; Tom Parsons, a right-hander, was 12-7 at Salt Lake City; and Tommy Yisk, a first year pitcher, was 6-7 with Burlington of the Three-Eye League.

Elmo Plaskett, a 22-year-old catcher, bears watching as a future big league prospect. A Virgin Islands product, the strapping youngster batted 295 at Grand Forks, N. D., drove in 78 runs in only 93 games and was named to the Northern League's all-star team. Wildcats Upset Purdue, 64-62

By EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — North-

western's Wildcats, using a collapsing zone defense, defeated Purdue, 64-62, Monday night and knocked the Boilermakers out of a first place tie with Ohio State in the Big Ten basketball race.

Northwestern, led by Ralph Wells, who topped all scorers with 21 points, held Olympian Terry Dischinger to six points in the first half and walked off with a 30-29 lead at intermission. Dischinger finished with 17 while Jerry Berkshire topped Purdue with 20.

The fired up Wildcats, gaining their second triumph against three conference losses, moved into a 36-31 lead in the second half before Purdue could get rolling.

Successful baskets by Darrell McQuitty, Dischinger and Berkshire put Purdue ahead 37-36. The two teams kept exchanging baskets, with Purdue holding the lead until Wells connected with five minutes left for a 51-50 Northwestern lead.

Berkshire and Dischinger gave Purdue the lead at 52-51 and 54-53 before Wells put the Wildcats ahead to stay 55-54 with three minutes left.

Northwestern twice took four-point leads after that, and although the Boilermakers came close, they could never regain the advantage.

Purdue suffered its first conference loss in four games and is now 9-4 for the season. Northwestern has a 6-7 record for the season.

Downstate Prep Notes

By JOHN CAMPBELL

Winchester High is one of the undefeated prep teams in Western Illinois this season and the Wildcats will be tough for any team to handle in the Jacksonville Regional tourney. It was 12 years ago (Feb. 1, 1949) that Coach Howard Lester took another strong Winchester club to play Amboy high at West Aurora's gym in a "March of Dimes" benefit doubleheader. The other game was between Teutopolis and Marmion Military Academy (Aurora). Bill Lashmet, former Winchester athlete, was the Amboy High assistant coach that season and it made it doubly interesting for Winchester fans. The Winchester assistant coach that year was Russell Wilson, present principal of the Scott County High school. Members of that fine Winchester squad included Bill Stuart, Bill Oswald, Don Greenwalt, Pat O'Donnell, Reg Haskins, Dan McLaughlin, Dan Lashmet, Harry Nortrup, Charles Marshall, Don Andell, Bob Wisdom, Dan Drummond, Maurice Kelley, Sam Peak and Dean Carrier.

Bill Osnies is leaving the football coaching job at Kankakee High after three years as the board of education did not renew his contract. He succeeded Vic Weber at the end of the 1957 grid season as mentor of the Kays. Ed Lash is the basketball coach at Mattoon High for one year as he replaced William Myers who is taking a leave of absence. John Thiel is in his sixth year as head basketball mentor of the Galesburg High Silver Streaks (7-5) this season. He is a graduate of Beloit, Wis. High school and Carthage College, Galesburg dropped two weekend games to tough opponents, losing at Canton 57-54 Friday and lost at home to Thornton (Harvey) 57-56 on Saturday night. The Thornton gamble paid off as the Northern five stalled for one shot in the final seconds as the shot missed but the rebound was good for the win.

Rich Williams of Granite City is the leading scorer for Bradley's Frosh five of Coach Joe Stowell. He is one of the most promising guards to enroll at the Peoria campus in several years. Decatur's Reds beat Canton 74-70 Saturday night and center Ken Barnes who led the scoring with 19 points missed the bus but caught a ride with friends in time to dress for the game at Canton. Two years ago Barney Hood, ace for Decatur High, missed the game at Canton as he got into a fight with a teammate before the bus left for Canton. He had to undergo surgery for a bad thumb injury.

Bob Coe will play his last game for Galesburg High Saturday night against Pekin's Chinks as he graduates in mid year. John Malone, 6-2 forward, will join Canton's squad Tuesday night against Limestone. He has been ineligible during the first semester and his presence will make the Little Giants strong for the tourneys. Lincoln Nixon, brother of famous "Bumpy" Nixon of last season at Galesburg High, led the Silver Streaks with 19 points against Thornton High of Harvey Saturday night.

Dave Downey, soph standout at Illinois U., attended the Galesburg-Canton game Friday night and talked to "Bumpy" Nixon, former Galesburg High all-state player. Two years ago these lads hooked up in a fine scoring duel that packed the Alice Ingersoll gym with Galesburg winning 66-60.

Bill Killen is in his first year as basketball coach at Mater Dei (Breese) High school and he graduated from Quincy College, formerly coached at Joppa High school. Jack Hills is in his fourth year as coach boss at Havana High and he is a graduate of Bradley U. He formerly served as coach at Green Valley High school. Jerry Odell is the new basketball coach this season at Dwight High and he is a former star basketball player at Galesburg and Illinois State Normal U. Paul Blakeman is the principal at Dwight High and a well known basketball official of Central Illinois. Don Anielak is Ramsey's new case boss and he coached at Kates City high last season. He succeeded Stan Horst who moved to Hillsboro High after serving four years at Ramsey High.

The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Soviet Premier Khrushchev is renewing his campaign for peaceful coexistence and a summit conference in an effort to convince the world that the Soviet Union has the initiative for peace.
In the background is his statement that international communism also will have the initiative for war if the capitalist countries insist in resisting Communist economic and ideological conquest.
If all the material written about
Thomas Wolfe in the 22 years since his death were placed end to end it would rival in volume all the material he wrote about himself in the 12 years during which he devoted almost full time to that job.
Just a few months ago Doubleday published what was classified as a definitive biography by Elizabeth Nowell. Now, rushing ahead in apparent confidence that Wolfe's followers never get enough, this publisher is out with the story of Thomas Wolfe and his family, written by Letegette Blythe from the notes and recordings of the late Mabel Wolfe
Wheaton, his sister.
Here is the side of the family—of Spruce Street, the Old Kentucky Home and Asheville—the side sometimes lusty, sometimes hilariously funny, upon which he so often turned his back in order to make the family fit his novels.
Here are the explanations, the defense, and sometimes the defensance, of people who were first wounded, then made famous, by the family's baby boy.
A good many people have been concerned recently because of the "transition period" during which a lame duck administration was faced with a serious world situation, requiring decisions in which the newly elected president could hardly be expected to participate.
In spite of that, retiring president Eisenhower thinks the elections should be held earlier and the incoming administration given more time to get its feet on the ground and prepare its own budget.
It can be argued, however, that preparing a budget from scratch, with a bunch of new hands doing the work, would indeed be a formidable job.

Claim Censure Of Turncoat House Republicans Is Mild

CHICAGO (AP) — Two Chicago
Republicans accused of helping Democrats take control of the Illinois House of Representatives were censured Monday by the Cook County Republican Central Committee.
But GOP leaders from 30 suburban townships, describing the action too lenient and a whitewash, walked out of the meeting room as the censure vote was being taken.
The proposal, backed by Cook
County GOP chairman Francis X. Connell, was endorsed 40-2 on the strength of votes cast by city ward committeemen.
The motion proposes that the two Republicans—Rep. Walter Mc-Avoy and Rep. Peter J. Miller—be denied recognition by the committee "unless and until both or either of them... demonstrate conclusively that once again we may repose trust in them."
Committeeman Jack Reedy of Schaumburg proposed the qualifying portion be deleted. But he was ruled out of order and his suburban colleagues staged their walkout.
The suburban representatives said they had agreed in caucus to demand permanent expulsion of McAvoy, Miller and two other Chicago Republicans, Rep. Michael Zlatnik and Rep. August Ruf.
Miller, McAvoy and Ruf are employed by the Democrat-dominated Chicago Sanitary District. Republicans have charged political pressure might have encouraged the trio to help Democrats win
House control.
The GOP has an 89-88 majority in the House. But McAvoy voted Jan. 9 with the Democratic minority to help incumbent House
Speaker Paul Powell, a Vienna
Democrat, regain the chair.
Republican attempts to boycott
the session and prevent Powell's re-election were thwarted when Ruf and Zlatnik ignored the boycott and helped Democrats establish the necessary quorum. Neither voted for Powell, however.
Zlatnik aroused GOP ire by refusing to vote for his party's cau-sus choice, Rep. William Pollack of Chicago.
No action was taken against Ruf and Zlatnik by the Cook County group. Connell said neither is a member of the county body, making it unnecessary for the group to take action. McAvoy and Miller are city ward committeemen.
But McAvoy addressed the group saying he voted for Powell as many Republicans had voted for the Democrat in 1959. Powell, unable to win backing from Chicago Democrats, won the speakership in 1959 with the help of insurgent Republicans.

File Charges Against Husband In Trunk Murder

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A murder complaint against the husband of a woman whose body was found in a trunk in Chicago last week was ordered by Dist. Atty.
Don Keller Monday.
The trunk, holding the body of Mrs. Ann Maria Albrecht, 24, had been shipped from here.
Her husband, Edward Albrecht, 24, is being held in jail in Jackson, Minn., for questioning. He told police there that he and Mrs.
Albrecht had been having domestic difficulties before she disappeared Dec. 20.
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mudrack, neighbors who had known the Albrechts since before their marriage in June 1957, said Monday that Albrecht had moved out of his home about Dec. 12 and had gone to live with a man they knew only as "Bob."

Albrecht's mother, Mrs. Wilma Robby, now taking care of their 3-year-old daughter in Minnesota, lived with them from October 1958
until last September.

2,000 Attend
Funeral For
Dr. Tom Dooley
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Young
Dr. Thomas A. Dooley was buried in Calvary Cemetery Monday half a world away from the remote sections of Asia where he introduced modern medicine.
Nearly 2,000 persons gathered in the big St. Louis Cathedral for the funeral of the medical missionary who fought ignorance and disease in Laos and other far-off places.
The St. Louis-born physician died in New York City of cancer last Wednesday, the day after his 34th birthday. He had become known the world over for a career notable for the extent of the achievements packed into a comparatively short life span.
Auxiliary Bishop Leo C. Byrne of St. Louis offered a Solemn Pontifical Mass at the 1½-hour
Roman Catholic service. The Rev.
George Gottwald, pastor of the cathedral, said, "We are amazed at the utter and complete selflessness of this man."

King Savang Vatthana of Laos, where Dr. Dooley operated a jungle hospital near the Red Chinese border, made the physician a Grand Officer of the Order of the Million Elephants and the White
Parasol. It is the highest honor
Laos can bestow on a noncitizen.
Dr. Dooley had been a member of the order since Oct. 22, 1959.
A medal signifying the posthumous award was placed on the casket after a presentation to his mother, Agnes Dooley. The presentation was made by Khamphan Panya, Laos minister of communications.
Burial was in a grave beside
Dr. Dooley's father, Thomas A.
Dooley Sr. and an older brother,
Earle, who was killed in Germany during World War II.

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—More motorists caught in traffic jams are telling their wives by radio they'll be late for dinner. More business and professional men, farmers and ranchers, truck and taxi drivers are keeping in touch with home base while on the go.

It's all due to a two-year-old industry—short-range, two-way radio, operating like a rural telephone party line. It uses 22 channels called the Citizen's Band.

Applications for licenses are booming, equipment sales doubling, uses by business firms multiplying.

The Federal Communications Commission, which opened up the channels late in 1958, has issued 178,000 licenses in the last two years and now is getting 10,000 new applications a month.

To hold down the chatter, FCC rulings now limit each communication to five minutes and maximum input power to around five watts, which gives a practical range of 5 to 10 miles, and a top of 20 miles under ideal circumstances.

It is estimated about 5,000 Citizen's Band receivers may be operating at one time. Because of such jams, some have asked the FCC to assign one channel for distress or emergency calls.

Boating enthusiasts have taken to the new equipment, as well as to the older and more powerful radio-telephone units.

Older marine radio telephones can have a 30-watt input carrying 45 miles over salt water and can be used to call the Coast Guard or summon aid from other vessels on one channel that is monitored 24 hours a day.

The boatmen also can use them to call the phone company and be connected with any shore-side phone.

The Citizen's Band is the old 11-meter band once used by amateur radio operators before the FCC subdivided it into 23 channels.

The smaller, cheaper and more limited range Citizen's Band radios now are used in many types of business.

Contact with outside operations are maintained by physicians, TV service men, auto repair shops, plumbers, laundry trucks, contractors, insurance adjusters, and commercial photographers.

Locomotives can start up warning crossing lights by using such radios.

Prices of Citizen's Band equipment depend on size, antennas, wiring and other accessories. Fully equipped ones average around $200, while a portable receiver has just been put on the market for $49.50.

MRS. E. A. DEATON ENTERTAINS CLUB AT RESTAURANT

Mrs. E. A. Deaton was hostess to the Strawn's Crossing Woman's club Thursday, Jan. 19, at Hamilton's restaurant. Mrs. J. W. Rawlings presided over the business meeting which opened with the group repeating the pledge to the flag and the Lord's Prayer led by Mrs. Ethel Strawn.

The minutes of the January 3 meeting were approved as read. For the program Mrs. Roy Newberry read an interesting article from Readers Digest about Africa's First Loyalty, The Tribe. For humor she read a short article from the same magazine entitled, "Woman's Way."

During the social hour delicious refreshments were served. Guests were Mrs. Betty Hayes and Mrs. Rest Moody.

The next meeting will be Jan. 31 at the home of Miss Mary Margaret Wax, 643 South West street. Mrs. Albert Standish will have the program.

OPTIMISTIC ABOUT 1961—Statisticians studying business trends predict that total national personal income will rise in 1961 to 423.3 billion dollars, up 16 billion from last year. Despite predictions for a continuing economic lag, the average income per person should rise to $2,317 annually, approximately $50 more than in 1960. Newsmap above shows the expected percentage rise in total personal income by states. Largest increases again are expected in Arizona, Nevada, Florida, Delaware, Colorado, Minnesota and California. Statistics from Business Week Magazine.

It was almost 30 years ago that the four aces proposed the jump raise of an opening bid to show trump support and a horrible hand. The theory in back of this bid is that all some strong hands need to make a claim is to find partner with trump support.

This bust jump raise fits in well with the two bid described yesterday and in Jacoby-Smith the jump raise of an opening bid in any suit except clubs shows at least four trumps and no ace or king or pair of queens. Of course, with a flat 4-3-3-3 hand and a bust you would still use the two no-trump response to start with.

North's hand certainly fulfills the requirements for this type of raise and South can bid a grand slam right away if he assumes that his partner will be short in hearts.

Better yet, South can use a little gadget we have incorporated for this purpose. He simply bids five hearts which asks, "Partner, how about your heart situation?" With a singleton North must bid six hearts; with the queen or a doubleton North must jump to six spades.

In this case he jumps to six spades and South can bid the grand slam with confidence.

SUPER EPIC FOE—Actor—and now producer—Cary Grant feels that longer-than-ever movies weary audiences, leave them without eagerness to see another film the next week. Cary's new film, "The Grass Is Greener," will be under two hours in length. Co-stars are Deborah Kerr, Robert Mitchum, Jean Simmons.

Cass County Lutheran Women Meet At Church

VIRGINIA—The United Lutheran Church Women met in the church at 7:30 p.m., Jan. 11. Devotions were led by Mrs. Earl Birnbaum, also the topic for the evening, "Let All the Nations Praise Thee." Recordings of liturgy and hymns of the Japanese, Indian, Finnish and Spanish speaking people were played by Mrs. Robert Stone.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Carl Smith. Roll call, using the word "new" in a Bible verse was answered by 13 members. The president led a service for the beginning of the year, entitled "Togetherness With God." The purpose and program of the work of the U.L.C.W. was described by the officers and chairmen of the various committees.

An invitation to attend the 40th anniversary of the Gloria Deo Society at Bluff Springs, on Feb. 1, was read. Mrs. Smith reminded the group of the World Day of Prayer service, which will be held in the Grace Lutheran church, Feb. 17. Helpers are needed for the program.

A letter from the Charles Burnham family was read by Mrs. Mary Meyer. Mrs. Conley Thomas reviewed several articles from the magazine, "Lutheran Woman." The meeting closed with the missionary benediction.

Mrs. Robert Harrison and Mrs. Arthur Sweetman were hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Earl Birnbaum. At the close of the meeting they served refreshments.

BRAZEN ROBBERY
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—In mid-afternoon in downtown Birmingham a man calmly lifted the hood of a parked car, waved busy traffic around his own double parked car, took something from under the hood, then drove away.

Later John R. Key reported to police that somebody stole the battery and carburetor from his car while it was parked on a downtown street.

Birthday Dinners Honor Roodhouse Residents Sunday

ROODHOUSE—A birthday dinner was served Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodson celebrating his birthday anniversary which occurred that day. Mr. Woodson is presently employed as a butcher in Granite City. Spending the weekend in the Woodson home was a granddaughter, Christina Crowe, Alton.

Mrs. Margaret Sullivan entertained with a dinner Sunday celebrating the birthday anniversary of her son, Franklin Sullivan, Carrollton, who was present with his wife and children.

14th Birthday

The 14th birthday anniversary was celebrated for Randy Day, son of Mrs. Ralph Day, at a dinner held at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Day, rural route, Friday night.

Present besides Mrs. Day, Randy and his sister, and the grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. Levereette Benner and family. Randy and two friends, Curt Shipton and Judson Bruce, attended the show.

Gilmore's Celebrate

A birthday dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Gilmore, Sunday, celebrating the seventh birthday anniversary of their daughter, Nancy. Present besides Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore and family were her mother, Mrs. Ernest Simons, uncle, Edwin Simmons, and Brenda Short, Roodhouse; and an aunt, Miss Mamie Thady, Jacksonville.

The dinner also celebrated the birthday anniversary of Miss Thady. Both anniversaries occur on Jan. 27. Evening guests in the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scoggins and family and his father, Russell Scoggins, Sr., all of Jacksonville.

captains of the destroyers Wilson and Damato to find the Santa Maria, board it and escort it to the nearest U.S. port if they determined an act of piracy had been committed.

The Portuguese government said a band of about 70 armed men headed by ex-army Capt. Henrique Galvao—a longtime enemy of Portuguese Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar—seized control of the ship in the Caribbean before dawn Monday, killing at least one ship's officer and wounding an unknown number of crewmen.

The hijackers reportedly boarded the ship in the guise of passengers at La Guaira, Venezuela, and the Dutch island of Curacao, off the coast of Venezuela.

More than 500 passengers—including Americans, Dutch, Venezuelans and Portuguese—and a crew of 370 were reported aboard the 20,806-ton liner. There was no word of any injury to the passengers.

The Rothsay radioed London she hoped to make contact with the Santa Maria around midnight.

The admiralty explained that the frigate had made neither visual nor radar contact with the liner but that her estimate of the Santa Maria's position based on speed "are presumably based on sighting reports plus intelligent speculation."

A communiqué said the band overpowered the captain and crew and seized the ship about 2 a.m. Monday, after it had left Curacao. "When all the passengers were sleeping and only night watchmen and crew were on duty," the band was reported of "several nationalities."

The Lisbon communiqué said the ship's third officer was killed in the fighting and there were "many wounded." A boatload of wounded seamen was reported put ashore at the West Indian port of Castries, on the island of St. Lucia, north of Trinidad, by the Santa Maria, which quickly set back to sea.

Galvao, a former member of the Portuguese National Assembly and a playwright, is a bitter longtime opponent of Portuguese Premier Salazar. He fled Lisbon in 1959 after escaping from a hospital while serving an 18-year prison term for treason. There was no word from the ship on the motive for the seizure, but speculation immediately arose that the band was focusing world attention on the 33-year-old Portuguese dictatorship.

A U. S. Navy spokesman called the seizure "unprecedented in peacetime." The Navy in Washington said that in ordering its destroyers to apprehend the ship, it was acting "under the well-defined terms of international law governing piracy and insurrection aboard ship."

Three U.S. PV-2 long-range patrol planes from Puerto Rico ranged over the Caribbean to search out the cruise ship and report its position to the warships. The British frigate Rothsay also was hot on the trail.

(A radio message heard in Curacao early today said an unidentified Swedish ship had located the Santa Maria 100 miles east of Trinidad.)

Miami agents for the Santa Maria said they had received a radio message from the vessel at 5 o'clock Monday night saying the ship was delayed by "engine difficulties." The ship was scheduled to stop at Port Everglades, Fla., at 7 a.m. today, but the agents, Shaw Bros., said the vessel reported it would arrive at 2 p.m.

Premier Salazar called an emergency meeting of his Cabinet in Lisbon and early today announced the "preposterous crime" to the nation.

Two of the Santa Maria's passengers are Chicago area women who were returning from a pleasure trip to Europe. They are Miss Pauline Sturman and Mrs. Lucille Gray. The women are sisters of suburban Bryn Mawr.

STRONG DEMAND SENDS BEANS UP

CHICAGO (AP) — A strong general demand sent soybean futures off to another sharp runup today on the Board of Trade with all old crop contracts five cents or more a bushel. New crop months gained about two cents.

The grains also were firm. Wheat, corn and rye advanced about a cent generally on buying credit in part, at least, to commercial accounts. However, the higher levels also attracted some short covering.

Most of the strength in soybeans was linked with a government report which showed the December crush at 37,690,000 bushels, a record high. At the same time, stocks of soybeans, soybean oil and soybean meal at crushing plants showed declines.

At noon, soybeans were 11-5/8 cents a bushel higher, March $2.30 1/2; wheat 1-1 cent higher, March $2.12 1/2; corn 1-1 cent higher, March $1.12 1/2; oats 1/2 cent higher, March 65 1/2; rye 1-1/4 higher, March $1.15 1/2.

Soybeans were up almost the limit for a single day in spots at the close with gains 3 to 9 1/2 cents a bushel. March $2.54 1/2-53 1/2; wheat 3/4 to 1 1/2 higher, March $1.12 1/2-1 1/4; oats 1/4 to 1/2 higher, March 65 1/2; rye 1/4 to 1 1/2 higher, March $1.15 1/2.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market took a moderate loss in active trading early this afternoon. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .70 at 230.40 with industrials down .80, rails down 1.50, and utilities unchanged.

The rail section was down sharply, depressed by another slide in Chesapeake & Ohio, this time off 3 points or so. Steels, motors, gold mining stocks, aircraft, missiles, electrical equipments and building materials were among the losers.

The four-week advance has brought the AP 60-stock average not far from its 1950 highs and some consolidation is in order, analysts said.

The news was uninspiring. The new secretary of labor reported that the unemployment situation is "very grave." Chrysler is laying off 4,500 of its salaried personnel. Steel output scored only a slight gain in the latest week after two weeks of fairly strong recovery.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 1.45 at 638.37. Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. governments edged upward. Trading was dull.

The Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, implied the plan would run into a wall of Republican opposition. He said 140 of the 174 Republican representatives met at a party conference and that "an overwhelming majority" approved a resolution opposing the Rayburn plan.

But another Republican, who would not permit use of his name, said Halleck had little or no hope of defeating it.

The Democrats, who have a decisive majority in the House, approved the plan at a recent caucus.

But Southern Conservatives have indicated they will oppose it in the floor fight. If enough Republicans joined them, the plan could be defeated.

Another plan to make the rules committee more liberal met a quiet death when the House voted to keep Rep. William M. Colmer, D-Miss., on the committee.

The vote on Colmer came as no surprise, for liberals had abandoned hopes of purging him and had supported Rayburn's plan instead.

In the past, a coalition of four Republicans and two Southern Democrats — Colmer and Chairman Howard Smith, D-Va. — has blocked many attempts to push liberal legislation through the committee.

The committee decides which bills go to the floor and in what order. A majority vote is needed to clear a bill for House action, and the coalition by insuring a 6-6 tie could stop any bill it did not like.

Under the Rayburn proposal, the committee would be enlarged to 15 by adding two more Democrats and one more Republican. The Democrats presumably would be less conservative than Colmer and Smith, and would vote to clear bills wanted by Democratic leaders.

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO BABY JANE

By Henry Farrell

Copyright © 1960 by Henry Farrell Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

THE STORY: Blanche Hudson, an old film actress whose career was ended by a crippling accident, has been watching her old films on television. With her is her sister, the former child vaudeville star, Baby Jane Hudson. Next door, also having watched the film, are Mrs. Bates and Harriett Palmer who discuss the accident that ended Blanche's career. There was something odd about it.

"Oh, you were so great, huh? So glamorous. What are you now, you old cripple?"

Blanche Hudson sighed, and hearing herself sigh, looked around in sudden apprehension at the dark, squat figure seated dimly at her side.

Distracted by her own unhappy speculations, she had quite forgotten she was not alone. Turning now, she looked obliquely at the face of the woman beside her, a face both revealed and obscured by the shadowing dimness. The large, dark eyes, intent upon the images on the screen, were half closed, narrowed really, as upon some intense inner observation. The contours of the face, underscored by the shadows, seemed not so much softened with age as swollen by it, so that the sagging flesh threatened, greedily, to swallow the once pert and childlike features embedded within its folds. But there was more there, too, more than mere age and some dark fledgling thought. There was a fever in the narrowed, watching eyes, and in the face there was a kind of angry justification.

Taking her gaze, by force, from Jane's face, Blanche made herself look back in the direction of the screen. Jane's moods were nothing new, nor were they a cause for alarm. Jane was simply in the first phase of one of her periodical "spells." They always started the same way, with the abrupt withdrawal into sullen silence, the dark, furtive glances and the sudden bright stares of angry defiance. There would be, perhaps, an emotional outburst and then, toward the end, the drinking. Blanche had, years before, accurately catalogued, in her own mind, the pattern of Jane's spells; they contained no surprises for her now.

Once, during one of Jane's drinking bouts, Blanche had seen clearly the face of Jane's jealousy, and it had been ugly beyond forgetting.

"Oh, you were so great, huh? So glamorous?" She had heard there, chewing the words over and spitting them out at Blanche like venom. "Oh, I know—they all said it; they told you how wonderful you were because they thought you were important. But who says it now? What are you now, you old, you cripple. Let's see you dance around and—show off how pretty you are. Let's see you do it now!" She had paused, staring at Blanche for a long time, her eyes bright with malevolence. "Oh, yes," she went on, "you got the looks all right. But that's all you got! I got the talent! Even if nobody cared... And I've still got it. And you, you're—nothing!"

Blanche shuddered against the memory. Her eyes fast upon Jane, she moistened her lips to speak, awaiting the sound of her own voice as if it would herald the beginning of some impending disaster.

"Jane?"

Before she could go on, Jane rose from her chair, crossed to the television set and summarily turned it off. On the screen the girl with the saute eyes, smiling with false rapture, fell away into a fretful, wriggling

Morgan County Report:

Unemployment Rises Despite More Jobs

NONAGRICULTURAL EMPLOYMENT IN JACKSONVILLE AREA (For Reporting Establishments Only)
Item	No. of Establishments	Dec. 15, 1960	June 15, 1960	Dec. 15, 1959
Total	33	3,036	2,936	2,908
Manufacturing	10	1,607	1,610	1,575
Nonmanufacturing	23	1,429	1,326	1,333

More jobs and more unemployment presented a divergent economic picture in Morgan county during the past year, the Jacksonville office of the Illinois State Employment Service reported Tuesday.

L. N. Caldwell, manager of the state office, 211 East Morgan street, said reports of employment received from 33 leading nonagricultural firms in the Jacksonville area indicate a modest increase (100) for the six-month period ending December 15, and a slightly larger advance (125) for the past year, with nonmanufacturing showing the way due to seasonal factors and staff expansion. Although the number of job holders grew, unemployment jumped from 550 (including 150 women) in mid-June, to 825 (including 150 women) by December 15, primarily caused by layoffs in construction locally and separations in other industries in adjoining areas. This upturn pushed joblessness 160 above its year level.

The four-month outlook indicates a slight decrease in unemployment will be largely attributable to seasonal outbursts in food, paper products, while construction and agricultural activity will depend on the weather, the job office manager said.

The state department report continued: Mixed trends prevailed in manufacturing workforces of reporting firms during the six-month period ending December 15, where a slight loss in durable goods was practically offset by a seasonal gain in nondurable goods. Compared with those of a year ago, current figures reveal a modest rise, with all of it being centered in nondurable goods.

Employment at 23 nonmanufacturing firms increased approximately 100 during the period from June 15 to December 15. The entire advance was recorded in the trade and service groups, but while the betterment in trade was seasonal, the expansion in service was of a permanent nature. For the year, an increase of 100 was also noted, with most of it being of a permanent nature and centered in the service group. Construction and agriculture, not represented in the reporting program, are in the midst of their usual seasonal declines and will continue relatively inactive until the spring season opens.

Sheppard Still Being Considered For State Post

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Otto Kerner said today he has examined a $16 million highway bid letting set for Friday and approved every project.

Kerner had hinted a week ago that the letting might be delayed because he hadn't gone over it.

But he said today he and Chief State Highway Engineer Ralph Bartelsmeyer now have looked it over and saw no reason to hold it up. Kerner said most of the work involves secondary roads.

Kerner also told a news conference that State Police Chief William Morris will remain in his job "unless I change my mind along the line."

He said Dr. Victor Sheppard of Jacksonville still is being considered for appointment as state director of registration and education.

The governor said he has not made up his mind whether he favors a free gate at the State Fair in Springfield. Three Springfield legislators last week introduced a bill to eliminate paid admissions after 4 p.m. daily.

James Carrigan, Retired Farmer, Dies Monday

John B. Carrigan, 87 year old retired farmer, died at Our Saviour's Hospital Monday night where he had been under treatment since Jan. 6th. Mr. Carrigan farmed in the Woodson area until seven years ago when he moved to this city. He resided at 726 North East St.

Mr. Carrigan was born in the Woodson area Nov. 14, 1873, son of Michael and Julia Sullivan Carrigan. He was married April 29, 1907 to Miss Margaret McGrath. She preceded him in death Nov. 22, 1918 as did one son, a daughter and six brothers.

The following children survive, Miss Julia Carrigan, Cincinnati, Ohio; Sister M. Loretta, Dominican Order, Springfield; James B. Carrigan, Chapin and Miss Catherine Carrigan, Jacksonville. There are four grandchildren.

Two sisters, Mrs. Hannah Doolin, Jacksonville and Mrs. Mary Nolan, Valparaiso, Ind.

The body is at Reavy funeral home where the remains may be viewed Wednesday afternoon and evening. The body will be recited at 8 p.m. that evening.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at Church of Our Saviour where the deceased was a member. Interment will be made in St. Bartholomew Catholic cemetery at Murrayville.

West Germany Gives Plan To Share Aid Load

NEW YORK (AP)—The West German government is preparing a $1.2-billion package plan to help the U.S. balance-of-payments problems, the New York Times said today.

The proposal would include paying off most of Bonn's postwar debts to the United States, purchase of armaments in the United States and assuming some of U.S. foreign aid burdens.

The offer will be conditional on Washington's agreement that the Bonn government accept $187 million as a U.S. settlement for German assets seized in the United States during World War II, the Times said in a dispatch from Bonn.

The Kennedy administration is expected to accept the condition for the settlement of an issue that has hampered relations for a long time, the newspaper said.

Basic provisions of the German offer listed by the Times are: Prepayment of $600 million of the remaining $787 million of West Germany's postwar debts to the United States. The other $187 million would be written off in settlement of the seized German assets.

Prepayment of $150 million worth of German arms orders already placed in the United States. A pledge to purchase and prepay $450 million worth of armaments in the United States this year. $200 million more than planned.

An agreement in principle for Bonn to assume some U.S. foreign aid projects and a part of the military aid programs to Turkey and Greece.

Rehab Participants Host Coffee

The Jacksonville Rehabilitation Center, located at 111 South East street, has come a long way since its origin 18 months ago under sponsorship of two local men in the District 117 school system, Robert Blazier, assistant principal at Turner Junior High and Harry Emrick, science teacher at the same school on temporary leave at the present. After the program was in progress the two men presented the project to Robert Manlove, area counselor for Illinois Department of Vocational Rehabilitation, and the project came under state sponsorship.

Participants recently hosted a Coffee at the Center honoring members of the medical and other professional staffs at Jacksonville State Hospital.

The picture at right, showing the serving table, includes at left, one of the participants at the tea urn, another participant having just served Dr. Sophie Leschin, Assistant, and Superintendent at the Hospital, Dr. Joseph Marcovitch, respectively.

The Rehabilitation Center is the only one of its kind in the State of Illinois.

Willis White, 77, Of Pittsfield Dies Monday

PITTSFIELD — Willis White, 77, of Pittsfield died Monday morning at 8:10 a.m. at Illinois Community Hospital in Pittsfield.

He was born Feb. 18, 1883 at Nebo.

His wife, the former Lillie Ellen Davis died in 1943.

White is survived by five daughters and five sons. They are Mrs. Oma Davis, Hamburg; Mrs. Cloe Wigger, Hillview; Mrs. Ruby Miller, Farber, Mo.; Mrs. Eleanor Duffy, Mrs. Lora Bushdicker, both of St. Charles, Mo.; Fred and Lester, Pleasant Hill; Clarence, Cottage Hill; Kenneth and Joseph, Pittsfield. There are 36 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Two brothers, John and Charles of Pleasant Hill and two sisters, Mrs. Viola Malone and Mrs. Fannie Sidwell of Pittsfield also survive.

The body is at the Sutter Funeral Home where services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday with Elder Joe Maynard officiating. Interment will be made in Wells cemetery near Pleasant Hill.

Balmain Styles Show Very Short Straight Skirts

PARIS (P)—Pierre Balmain launched a semi-fitted, softly feminine silhouette today with straight skirts that just cover the knee.

He treated the bosom to draping and bow and braid trimming to give it emphasis, and merely hinted at the waistline under bloused-over tops or unfitted jackets and blouses.

In spite of tailored revers and such mannish materials as pin stripes, Balmain's suits are anything but severe. His colors are pale lilac, white, coffee-cream, shocking pink, green, aqua, and black and white combinations.

The windblown Paris that seems to have swept Paris this season sweeps in again in such vaporous materials as floating chiffons, georgette in a new revival, thin silk crepe and gauzy woolsens.

Even woolen coats are ventilated for the spring breezes. They are seamed together with open fastenings.

Graceful garden parties would be the proper setting for Balmain's draped floral chiffon dresses with matching chiffon coats. Airy as the material is, sleeves are sometimes cuffed with mink or sable.

Balmain has returned to his ribbon streamer skirts that float free of the figure. One model is in brown and white silk crepe cut in vertical stripes, pleated in the bodice and over-skirted with streamers.

Perhaps there is bigger news in his hats than his dresses, for these are saucer-sized scraps of nonsense perched gaily on one side of the head, hanging on with the aid of stiff halo eye veils. They are the exact opposite of last season's blown up headgear.

NAME NEWSMEN TO HELP SELECT NIEMAN FELLOWS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Harvard University today announced the choice of three newspapermen to serve on the selecting committee for Nieman fellowships this year.

They are William B. Dickinson, managing editor of the Philadelphia Bulletin; Lindsay Hoben, editor of the Milwaukee Journal, and Norman E. Isaacs, managing editor of the Louisville Times. Dickinson was a Nieman fellow in 1939-40.

They will serve with three members of the university. About 12 fellowships are awarded annually to working newspapermen for a college year of residence study at Harvard on leave of absence from their jobs. The deadline for applications to the Nieman Foundation is April 15.

1 Below Zero; More Severe Cold Forecast

Jacksonville and community took it on the chin from the Weather Man with a one below zero temperature Tuesday morning, and is due to bounce back for more "punishment" Wednesday, according to U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts.

High wind whipped over this section of the state Monday night, dropping the mercury to the zero mark. Then in a special exhibition of how cold waves should act, the mercury skidded on down between 7 and 8 a.m. at the WJLS transmitter, until it reached one below zero.

The frigid period has held sway since Jan. 19.

Some thermometers in suburban and rural districts dropped to 10 below zero Tuesday morning.

An official reading of from 8 to 15 below may be in the cards for Wednesday, according to the forecast from the Springfield Weather Bureau headquarters.

Grand Jury To Hear Evidence In Pistol Death

The Morgan county grand jury will be convened at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning by Judge Creel Douglass to consider evidence in several cases which will be presented by State's Attorney Charles J. Ryan.

Cases scheduled for investigation include the fatal shooting of William Jackson on the night of Dec. 10, 1960, at the Moss-Walton Legion Home on Anna street. Jackson is said to have been a bystander during a pistol duel between two others in the place. He was struck in the head by one bullet.

Three men were arrested after the shooting on charges of assault with intent to commit murder.

The grand jury also is expected to take up the accusation of a 50 year old woman against a 20 year old youth, who is charged with burglary with intent to commit rape.

Call Bids For New Chapel At Illinois College

Deadline for bids for construction of the Rammelkamp Chapel at Illinois College will be 3:00 p.m. Friday, Feb. 24 according to an announcement today by President L. Vernon Caine. The date was determined by the finance committee of the Board of Trustees of the College upon authorization of the Board.

Bids will be received in the office of the President at the college. The finance committee will present its recommendation to the Board of Trustees in a special meeting called for the week following Feb. 24.

Construction of the 1,100 seat chapel should be completed in about one year according to the architects. Present plans are to dedicate the building during Commencement Weekend in 1962.

For School Children—

Alderman Suggests Bus Stop Shelters

Shelters for children at principal school bus stops in the city were advocated by Alderman Dewey Tribble at Monday night's council session.

"Those children shouldn't have to stand unprotected in the cold," Tribble declared. "This morning I saw 30 or 35 pupils waiting for a bus, who should have protection from the cold. Sometimes they wait for half an hour."

"This idea certainly is alright," Alderman Souza said, "but it seems to me that it should be within the function of the Board of Education, and not the city council."

Alderman Tribble said regardless of whose duty it is, he believes school bus stop shelters would be a great worth while improvement.

Mayor DuBois said that while the matter lies within the jurisdiction of the school officials, there are other organizations that might be interested in providing such facilities. Some of the councilmen said shelters might be placed on city property.

No action was taken on the suggestion of Alderman Tribble, but it appeared that idea may catch hold. Comfort waiting stations for youngsters in cold weather may eventually grow out of the discussion.

Tuesday's low temperature of one below zero backed up Tribble's assertion that "it is mighty tough for those kids to stand out there."

Edw. Camerer, Eldred Farmer, Dies Suddenly

CARROLLTON—Edward Camerer, retired Eldred farmer, died at midnight Monday at Boyd Hospital here several hours after suffering a heart attack while eating dinner that evening. Mr. Camerer was taken to the hospital from his home at 10 p.m. and death followed two hours later.

The deceased was born in Greene county 83 years ago the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Camerer. He was married to Cordelia Shaw and she survives with four children, Mrs. J. J. Hansen, Jerseyville; Mrs. D. G. Roberts, Granite City; Samuel of Eldred and Edward of Carrollton. A brother, Buford, Carrollton, also survives.

The body was taken to Simpson funeral home.

Layette Is Sent To World Relief By Lutheran Aid

At the January 19th meeting of the Ladies' Aid of Salem Lutheran church, the topic for consideration was "Women on a Mission." The Rev. H. C. Rose stressed the fact that every woman is sent into the world to fulfill some role in bringing the heavenly message of love and reconciliation into the conflict of human life. He further stated that, "Every woman as a Christian individual should feel it her mission to perform those deeds that give glory to God and benefit to others for time and eternity."

After the presentation of the topic and the consecration of the mile box offerings of $54.93 for missions, letters were read from missionaries in Japan, Korea and India.

Thirty-six members were in attendance. At the business meeting, committee reports were heard. Mrs. George Oberlate and Mrs. Edward Staake had visited members of the congregation who were ill or shut-in.

Mrs. P. J. Davidmeyer announced that Mrs. E. J. Kormeyer, chairman, Mrs. Albert Siebenmann, Mrs. Mayme Torbeck and Miss Lydia Tholen will serve on the missions hospitality committee.

Mrs. Ray Steele reported that a dinner would be served on the evening of February 6 to the Morgan County Soil Conservation Group at Salem School. Members of the Ladies' Aid who wish to contribute food or cash are requested to call Mrs. Walter Enfield or Mrs. Edward Steging.

Mrs. George Greenler reported that a layette had been assembled and had been shipped on January 1 to the Board of World Relief. The next meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held on February 16.

Janet Hullinger Of Bluffs High Honored Twice

BLUFFS—Miss Janet Hullinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hullinger, has received two honors in the past week. She was named 1961 Homemaker of Tomorrow for Bluffs High School, having received the highest score in a written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating seniors in her school. She is a candidate for the state Homemakers of Tomorrow award which will be announced in March.

Janet has also been named the 1961 DAR good citizen of the Bluffs School. She was chosen by the faculty on the basis of criteria set up by the James Caldwell Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Janet has gained this honor of good citizen through her work as President of the GAA, Senior Class Secretary, and as a working member of the Local High School National Honor Society, Chorus, Band, and PHA in extra-curricular endeavor, as well as prizing herself in academic work and in cooperativeness with faculty and students. She is an active member of the Bluffs Methodist Church and Sunday School Librarian.

This is the first year the local school has been invited to choose a DAR good "citizen."

Frozen Drain Pipe, Torch Cause Blaze

Tuesday morning's intense cold of one degree below zero was responsible for a fire about 9 o'clock in the rear of Hamilton's Restaurant, on East State street.

Workmen were using a blow torch to thaw out a frozen pipe from the cooler, when the rear wall caught fire near the door. An alarm brought fire trucks to the scene, and a line of water from a booster pump was turned into the partition. Minor damage was caused by the blaze.

Firemen responded to the alarm when the mercury was one below zero.

Wyman C. Bland, Former Local Resident, Dies

Wyman C. Bland, native of Franklin and former Jacksonville resident, died Tuesday morning at St. Francis hospital in Peoria following an extended illness. Mr. Bland had been hospitalized two weeks.

He was employed at Caterpillar in Peoria where he had been a resident the past 25 years.
